One week to go!

Second Stage is one week away from opening night! The actors are just about perfect with their lines. The director and crew are calm as could be.

We are ready to add the huge task of costumes and all the quick changes and sweaty polyester that go with them.

A BIG thank you to June Session faculty who came to the Main Avenue Theatre last Tuesday night to see a run through of Good 'N' Plenty. It was a much needed audience for the cast, and it really showed the Second Stagers that their faculty supports them.
